Road Closures

Saturday, October 10, 2009

Sunday, October 11, 2009

On the morning of Sunday, October 11 over 11,000 people will participate in the 30th Annual Royal Victoria Marathon. The races (8K – 7:15am, Half Marathon – 7:30am, Marathon – 8:30am, and Kids Run – 10:15am) start near and finish in front of the BC Legislative Buildings. Most runners will finish the events by 1:30pm. The Marathon will affect vehicular traffic in the following areas: Downtown, James Bay, Cook Street Village, Beacon Hill Park, Fairfield, Oak Bay and Uplands. Police, City staff and race organizers are working to ensure a safe route. Residents and commuters should expect delays, and be prepared to use alternate routes. Times for road closures are approximate. Roads will be re-opened on a rolling schedule as the marathon passes through the various neighbourhoods. IMPORTANT: No parking is allowed on the course.
